

MATTHEW SMITH

1234 Bayview Drive, Altus, Oklahoma • 580-555-1234 • mattsmith@email.com • Open to relocation worldwide

---

SECOND GENERATION CAREER PILOT

Aircraft Commander • Instructor • Officer

Recognized among the top 2% of Air Force pilots.

---

Highly awarded aviator blending technical precision with charismatic personality. Offer 12+ years of in-flight and on-ground direction, flying 2,618 hours, training up to 150 flight students, and managing up to 85 personnel. Dependable, collegial, and safety-driven, known for affably engaging a wide variety of audiences. Uniquely calm under extreme pressure with history-making reputation for key planning and implementation roles.

Relevant highlights:

- Outstanding Supervisor of Flying: Supervising 120+ mishap-free coalition aircraft missions.
- Superior Aviator: Recovering multiple $280M B-1 assets under duress.
- Resourceful Manager: Directing 75 training.
- Enthusiastic Public Liaison: Flying 11 North American Air Shows.

FLIGHT TIMES

---

Domestic and international hours: 2,812. Military conversion not applied.

PIC Turbine: 1,901

T-37 IP: 1,191

B-1B: 710

Multi-Engine Turbine: 2,218

Combat Time: 364

USAF UPT: 228

Actual Instrument: 340

Civilian Time: 400

Night: 285

EXPERIENCE

---

U.S. AIR FORCE, 1994 – present

Ten years of precision accuracy in rapid decision-making environments.

B-1 Aircraft Commander / Mission Lead & Chief of Ground Scheduling (3/03 – 3/08)

Altus Air Force Base • Altus, Oklahoma

Complex accountabilities as commander of the Air Force's premier high performance, supersonic long-range heavy bomber. Manage 100+ aviators' mobility readiness, coordinating five base agencies to assure deployment capacity. Installed worldwide to fulfill tactical requirements in support Joint Chiefs of Staff, Secretary of Defense, combatant commanders, and ground personnel under fire. Manage 15 direct reports.

Key Accomplishments:

- Direction of 65+ international missions, achieving 100% rules of engagement compliance.
- Planning and assurance for 3,950 ground training events, each having up to 125 personnel.
- Leadership of 12 B-1 combat aviators in two of the highest tempo combat operations in United States history.
- Coordination of 37 unit deployments as Resident B-1 aircraft expert for CENTCOM Control.
- Twice awarded "9BS Aircraft Commander of the Month" and "Aerial Achievement Medal."

T-37B Instructor Pilot, XYZ Flight Training Squadron (6/97 – 3/03)

Fairchild Air Force Base • Spokane, Washington

Delivered first-round flight instruction to 95+ USAF and international students in aerobatics, instrument procedures, navigation, and formation flying. Squadron check pilot, supervising a flight of 12 instructor pilots and leading classes of up to 15 students. Managed 80 personnel.